LINCOLN RAISING THE HALL, FEBRUARY

STORY OF THE PHOTOGRAPH

THIS PICTURE IS FROM AN UNPUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPH MADE BY F. DE BURG RICHARDS. IT SERVED AS THE BASIS OF THE WOOD CUT WHICH APPEARED IN HARPER'S WEEKLY AT THE TIME, BUT THE ORIGINAL PHOTOGRAPH WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN LOST UNTIL RECENTLY WHEN IT WAS ACCIDENTALLY DISCOVERED AND AN ENLARGEMENT OF IT COPYRIGHTED. THE PICTURE WHICH WAS TAKEN JUST AFTER MR. LINCOLN'S ADDRESS AND WHILE THE REV. HENRY STEELE CLARK WAS MAKING A PRAYER, SHOWS THE PRESIDENT-ELECT STANDING NEAR THE CENTRE OF THE PLATFORM WITH THE FLAG WHICH HE IS ABOUT TO RAISE IN HIS HANDS. THE LINE OF SOLDIERS STANDING IN FRONT OF THE PLATFORM ARE MEMBERS OF THE SCOTT LEGION, WHICH SERVED AS ESCORT TO MR. LINCOLN WHILE HE WAS IN THIS CITY.

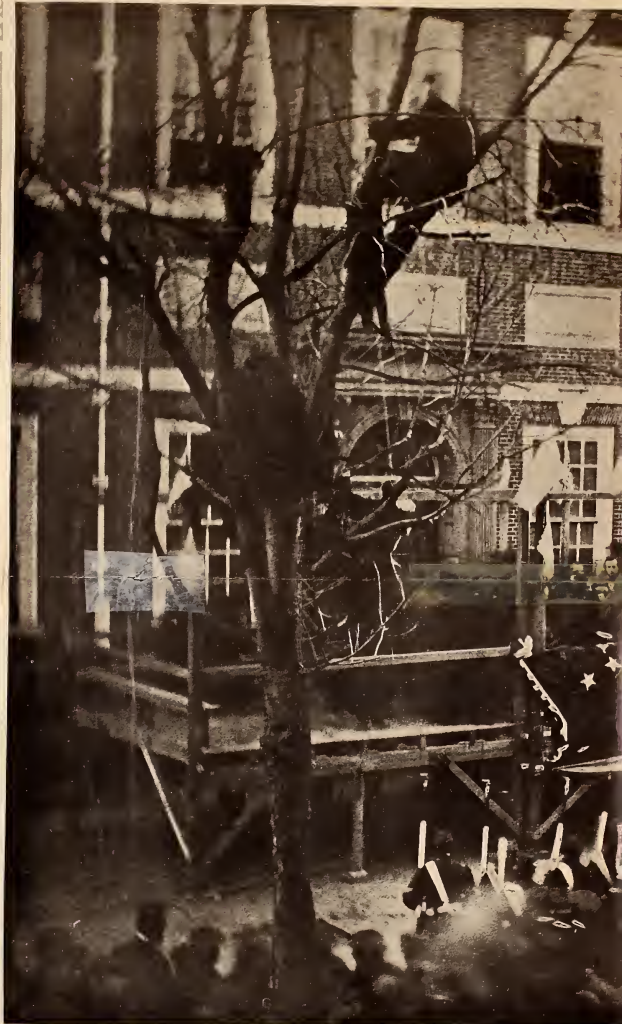

FLAG ON INDEPENDENCE
MAY 22d 1861

LINCOLN'S SPEECH AT THE FLAG-RAISING

Fellow citizens, I am invited and called before you to participate in raising above Independence Hall the flag of our country, with an additional star upon it. [Cheers.] I propose now, in advance of performing this very pleasant and complimentary duty, to say a few words. I propose to say that when that flag was originally raised here, it had but thirteen stars. I wish to call your attention to the fact that, under the blessing of God, each additional star added to that flag has given additional prosperity and happiness to this country until it has advanced to the present condition; and its welfare in the future, as well as in the past, is in your hands. [Cheers.] Cultivating the spirit that animated our fathers, who gave renown and celebrity to this hall, cherishing that fraternal feeling which has so long characterized us as a nation, excluding passion, ill temper and precipitate action on all occasions, I think we may promise ourselves that not only the new star placed upon that flag shall be permitted to remain there to our permanent prosperity for years to come, but additional ones shall from time to time be placed there, until we shall number, as was anticipated by the great historian, five hundred millions of happy and prosperous people. [Great applause.] With these few remarks I proceed to the very agreeable duty assigned me.

CATAFALQUE ON WHICH LINCOLN'S REMAINS WERE DRAWN THROUGH PHILADELPHIA

The remains lay in state in Independence Hall, April 22-23, 1865. The photograph was in the Independence Square, especially for the undertaker, the late E. B. Easley, who had charge of transferring the remains from Washington to this city, and directed the funeral here. The photograph, which is owned by Joseph J. Easley, is now reproduced for the first time.

FAMILY BIBLE.—Once owned by Lincoln's father, Thomas Lincoln, and now in the Oldroyd collection, Washington.

LINCOLN'S FAVORITE ROCKING CHAIR. Now in the Oldroyd collection, Washington. Photograph by Harris & Ewing.

LINCOLN'S DESK, CHAIR AND INKSTAND.—As they were arranged in the Lincoln library at the house of Major William H. Lambert. The above was destroyed by fire June 6th, 1906, and only the inkstand and a few pages of the chair remain.
